It is not for our family, it is not to secure a good position, it is not to earn money, it is not to obtain a diploma, that we study. We study to learn, to know, to understand the world, and for the sake of the joy that it gives us.

Prim Bulletin

Here we are - at the start of yet another wonderful school year for Primrose! Another opportunity to serve our children better than before.

We have welcomed change as always. A surge of freshness and newness fill the air. New children, new courses, new teachers, new class rooms, new lessons, new resolutions. What remains unchanged is our determination to raise our standards.

Children settled so effortlessly & smoothly including the tiny tots in Kindergarten section. Celebrations, field trips and in house events were carried out well. Operations are in full swing keeping in mind our long time goal of affiliation to the ICSE board.

As for message for the month, try to choose a straight stick and dip it half-way into some water: the stick will appear to be bent in the middle. But that is an illusion, and if you were to think that the stick was actually bent, your judgment would be wrong. On the other hand, it is possible for a stick that is actually bent in the middle to appear straight if it is carefully placed in a particular way in the water.

Well, men are often like sticks. If you look at them from a certain angle, you may not see them as straight as they are, and sometimes too, they may have a deceptive appearance and seem straight when they are crooked.

A friend of yours may seem awkward or slow, and yet be the most hardworking student of the class. And your teacher whom you find strict and severe probably loves you much and desires only your progress.

What we should look for in every man, if we do not want to judge him too unjustly, is what is best in him.

Life is beautiful. Always. Only that we are too busy to see it. If we search for the good in others, we are sure to find it. Let us be incapable of seeing flaws. Little children, let us be judicious, prudent and generous in our thoughts; let us be careful not to judge anyone too hastily; and even let us refrain from judging them at all when we can avoid it.

Our receptivity to the Divine's presence is certainly increasing.

Contributions from Budding Poets

Little Penguin
Deepashree, Std IV

*I am a little penguin on the ice,
I think cold is very nice,
I can hop around first once,
Then twice,
I think ice is very nice,
I am a little penguin in the snow,
I slide on my tummy to and fro,
I eat the fish from the deep blue sea
I am black and white, so look at me!*

Rain,
Janani, Std VIII

*Rain Rain, you take away pain,
From an old sprain,
Rain Rain, my stress is all gone,
Once you are all on.
Rain Rain, Flowers bloom
While I broom
Rain Rain, Water splashes
And dogs are on lashes
Rain Rain, Once again you came
Forever you are the same!*

Butterfly
Havish Sakthi, Std I

*Butterfly Butterfly,
Come to me,
No No No No,
No No No No,
I must go,
I must go,
Far away*

Values - A Path to Self-Perfection

Right Judgment

Marshini, Std VIII

I learnt about Right Judgment in my Value Education class. I learnt to see only the good in others. I know I have a temper. I just shout at people when I get angry. After my classes on this topic, I was able to forge a better relationship with my classmates. I am able to control my temper. I used to complain

Anbumathi, Std VII

Right Judgment is all about judging anything right, seeing only the positive, observing the positive, talking the positive, giving out only positive.

It helps us in many ways. It keeps us peaceful, keeps us united with others, makes new friends, makes others also to think positively, and so on. We come to know about what is forgiving if we judge positively and correctly. People will talk to us well than they did before , they will also learn from us how to judge positively, we can be much more simpler than before, which makes others like us.

about the bad qualities of my classmates, but now I am making attempts to not complain.

We must try not to judge anybody - a new girl or boy in class or a new teacher. We have to patient and wait to know more about the person. We must try to act true to the proverb - Never Judge a Book by its cover!

We can follow the right judgment method to keep ourselves peaceful, and not think about negative things that happened to us, that keeps us happy.
